DeSantis is violating our constitutional rights | Dorothy Inman-Johnson

The Bill of Rights guarantees all of us five freedoms, not just the governor and those who agree with him.

Those freedoms are Speech, Religion, Right to Keep and Bear Arms, Assembly, and to Petition our Government on Grievances. The First Amendment of the Constitution, also, guarantees free speech rights to Americans (including Floridians) and the press. There is no addendum in the Constitution that gives any governor or legislature the authority to abridge those rights.

Yet, Gov. Ron DeSantis has redefined the word WOKE to mean anything that fits his purpose and discriminatory practices against Floridians who dare to disagree with him. Instead, the dictionary definition of WOKE is “alert, aware, and well informed”. Therefore, I am a proudly WOKE Floridian.

He, likewise, has misrepresented Critical Race Theory (CRT), an elective course only taught in colleges and universities, to fear monger parents that it is used for indoctrination of children in grades K-12. Such misconceptions allow the governor and his MAGA army to deceive the less informed into accepting his many violations of the rights of innocent Floridians.

Florida bill allows DeSantis to run for president while governor

By – Curt Anderson, Associated Press

Politics Apr 28, 2023 6:54 PM EDT

Republican Ron DeSantis would not have to resign as Florida governor in order to run for president if he chooses under a bill given final approval Friday in by the GOP-dominated state Legislature.

The measure, attached to a much broader elections bill, would carve out an exemption to Florida law requiring anyone seeking office to resign from one they already hold after qualifying as a candidate. Only an officeholder running for U.S. president or vice president would not have to resign.

Supporters portrayed the bill as purely a clarification and not intended specifically for DeSantis, who has not yet announced a presidential bid but is widely expected to declare his candidacy for the Republican nomination in the coming weeks. The bill passed the state House 76-34 along party lines and now goes to DeSantis, who is expected to sign it into law.
